OMNIBUS EMPLOYEES ON STRIKE

Great Inconvenience Is Caused in London by the Motormen and Conductors

HORSE LINES RUNNING

For the First Time in a Number of Years—No Disturbances Reported—Conferences are Being Held.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Sept. 19.—Not a single motorman or conductor employed by the Tilling Omnibus company whose action in refusing to recognize the union is likely to bring about a general strike of transport workers in London went to work this morning. Many of the motorbus lines from the south to the north of London were entirely suspended, causing great inconvenience.

A few of the old horse omnibuses were put on the streets, first time in several years. There was no disturbance in the vicinity of the motorbus quarters although the strikers gathered there in groups, waiting for their comrades employed by other companies to join them at midnight tonight.

Several conferences were held in the course of the morning between the omnibus and the representatives of the employers of the Amalgamated Tube system. The action of the latter in case of a strike was discussed. The entire press of London supports the men in their demands. Many of the newspapers declared that the point in regard to the wearing of union badges should never have been raised.

FINALLY SETTLED; MADERO AND SUAREZ LEGALLY EXECUTED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Mexico City, Sept. 19.—The deaths of the late President Francisco I. Madero and Vice President Suarez were not brought about by a punishable crime, according to a decision pronounced by the military court here today.

The investigation lasted six months. It was started by the military commandant of the federal district immediately upon the conclusion of the three days' battle in the streets of Mexico City last February, which resulted in Provisional President Huerta coming into power. The result of the commandant's inquiry was forwarded to the military tribunal which continued the examination of witnesses.

Among these called by the court to give evidence was Major Francisco Cardenas, who commanded the escort which conveyed President Madero and Vice President Suarez from the national palace to the prison. Two subordinate officers of rural guards and a number of recruits in the vicinity of the jail also were examined.

GEN. DIAZ WILL BE CANDIDATE OF HUERTA FACTION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Sept. 19.—News that General Felix Diaz, nephew of Porfirio Diaz, has been recalled to Mexico to become the candidate of the Huerta faction in the coming presidential election aroused much interest here in official circles. The general feeling was that the return of Diaz meant a compromise with President Wilson's demand that General Huerta should not be a candidate. So far as auguring an era of peace, however, the outlook was described as discouraging.

While the acting governor is on record with a promise to extend recognition to the government set up by a legal and free election it is said to be certain that the United States would not hasten to recognize Diaz if he was elected, but would wait in accordance with the precedents of President Hayes' administration to determine whether the resulting government was strong enough to maintain peace and guarantee international obligations.

The fact that the constitutionalist faction regards Diaz as being jointly responsible with Huerta for Madero's downfall, it is thought here, will mean a sharp contest between the warring factions.

The attitude of the United States for the next few weeks is likely to be that of an interested spectator with John Lind being retained at Vera Cruz, however, to show that the United States stands ready to assist in the situation by pacific means if its friendly offers are desired.

Insane Father Blows Up Home With Dynamite; Two Killed and Three Injured

(INVESTIGATION BEING CONDUCTED)
Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 19.—Carefully selecting the places where he believed the most damage would be done Max Hurst, 50, a stone mason early today blew up his home here with dynamite, killing himself and his 17-year old daughter Maud and injuring two other children and stunning his wife.

The injured were: Fannie Hurst, 12, one leg broken and body lacerated; Elizabeth Hurst, 6, severely cut and bruised; Mrs. Rena Hurst, 49, stunned by explosion.

Hurst had been separated from his wife for six weeks and yesterday she refused to take him back. It is believed that he then in a fit of insanity, determined to wipe out the entire family consisting of his wife and eight children.

The dead girl met the fate intended for her mother and the fact that they had changed beds for the night cost the daughter her life. Hurst after stealthily, in the darkness, planting a stick of dynamite under each of the three beds in the house tied two sticks to his own body, crawled into the bed which he formally occupied with his wife, but which last night contained the three daughters, Maud, Fannie and Elizabeth. Fannie spoke to her father. "Lay still," Hurst replied. "We will all die together."

Before the girl could make a move, the explosion rent the house and roused the entire city. The police and fire department rushed to the scene, sent the two injured girls to the hospital and cleared away the debris. Four sticks of dynamite unexploded, were found in the ruins and the fact that only one, and that one attached to Hurst's body, had exploded accounted for the escape of the other members of the family.

But little is known of the tragedy beyond the results. Mrs. Hurst, who escaped injury, how she says she does not know, says that the man awoke the family about 2 o'clock and told them all to gather in his bedroom. After they all entered, he closed and locked the doors and said only these five words: "We will all die together."

Then he picked up a stick of dynamite, which was lying on the floor near him, and threw it under the bed.

There was a deafening roar and Mrs. Hurst remembers nothing more until she came to consciousness at the home of a neighbors nearly an hour later. The noise of the explosion woke the whole city. Firemen and police hastened to the scene and at once began a search. The bodies of Hurst and his daughter were found in a mass of debris at the rear of the house.

Canton Murderer in Ohio Pen Confesses to Taking Bichloride of Mercury

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Sept. 19.—Reading in newspapers suicide cases by taking bichloride of mercury and careful computation of the amount necessary to kill a man, probably will result in the death of Lorenzo Roach, aged 33, triple murderer of Canton, received at the state prison Tuesday to serve a life sentence for the murder of his mother-in-law, sister-in-law and a baby. He threatened vengeance after death to his former attorney.

Roach says he took nearly twelve grains of the poison last night. He informed guards of his act this morning when he sauntered into the hospital. He declared he had watched accounts of mercury poisoning carefully and knew how much to take to cause certain death. Two and a quarter seven grain tablets were passed to the guard with a note informing the guard of his act, and saying the surplus tablets were useless to him as he could not escape death. Purposely he had withheld information until after the tablets would be assimilated by his system, Roach said.

"I am not anxious to live, if there is any insurance collected over me by any one and they don't bury me with the baby, I shall break their D— necks, with the help of God. So beware, I guess my wife is still sore at me, and she won't want to take charge of my body. I'm awfully sorry that I killed those people now and I don't remember hardly anything about it, but I didn't mean to do it. My mother-in-law and my sister-in-law wouldn't leave my wife alone and they would make her go to their homes and then she didn't do the work about the house. But I'm sorry I did it and I don't think they gave me a square show at Canton," wrote Roach.

Roach suffered burning pains in his stomach this morning. He asserts he secured the poison while in jail at Canton.

Believe That Priest Had Planned to Kill the Aumuller Girl in April

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Sept. 19.—Detectives rummaging through the effects of Hans Schmidt, confessed murderer of Anna Aumuller, were strengthened today in their belief that he had planned other murders by finding complete sets of health department's blanks necessary to dispose of bodies from death certificates, such blanks were issued by the department only to physicians in good standing, whose records have been rigidly investigated. How Schmidt got them was unknown.

With the finding of these blanks the police redoubled the vigor of their search for Helen Green, who vanished a month after writing Schmidt; but she could not live without him, she was believed to be in Chicago. Schmidt told the police she was a casual acquaintance.

Raking over the past of Ernest Muret, the dentist friend of Schmidt implicated with Schmidt in counterfeiting operations, Inspector Faurot, head of the detective bureau had this to say:

"I have learned that Dr. Muret was in Chicago at the time of the investigation into the life of Johan Hoch. Hoch was arrested in that year after he was charged, he had killed 18 of his wives. There was a report that the number of wives would reach fifty. No charge in connection with the Anna Aumuller death has been made against Muret as yet. Muret is in the Tombs awaiting sentence for having violated the "Sullivan" law in having a pistol in his possession. The blanks found in Schmidt's effects today were of the kind issued by physicians to relatives of a dead person to be by them turned over to the undertaker in charge of the body. There were nine of these blanks. There were also several death certificates. In addition there were photographic reproductions of the death certificate issued.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Sept. 19.—Detectives delving further in the past of Hans Schmidt, the priest, who murdered Anna Aumuller, sought today to fathom what was in his mind last April when he photographed the death certificate of Robert Smith, one of his parishioners. Photographs of this certificate and a blank form issued by the board of health were found in Schmidt's trunk. The find led the police to believe that the priest either was making preparations then to dispose of the Aumuller girl or planned other murders. They questioned him about this certificate today but his answers gave them little information. The priest has evidenced a tendency lately to answer all questions with the declaration that he was directed in his acts by God and Abraham.

To the belief that Schmidt planned other murders the police are more inclined to the opinion that he was laying plans last April to be rid of the Aumuller girl. They say that a skilled forger like the prisoner would have been able to have the bodies of victims buried in any cemetery by filling out counterfeit burial blanks and forging the signatures. They believe that Schmidt caused the blanks to be photographed in order to obtain exact copies so that he might have duplicates struck off in blank.

Inspector Faurot announced today that he was looking for another woman in the case. He gave no details of what her connection with the case might be. The only other woman whose name has thus far been associated with Schmidt is known as Helen Green, from a letter found in Schmidt's trunk, in which she said she could not live without him. Her name was not signed to the letter and the address and a telephone number led the police to an apartment house where a woman by that name had lived until a month previously. There it was said that she had gone to Chicago and that several letters had been forwarded to her, not one of which had come back.

The finding of the photographed blanks in Schmidt's trunk caused the detectives to dig deeper into the past of Ernest Muret, the self-styled dentist, implicated with Schmidt in counterfeiting. From London came reports that Muret had been a fugitive from justice since April, 1912, when he was charged with having falsely represented himself as Dr. Ernest Muret.

SENATORS TO RETAIN THE SEATS

The First Fight in the Sulzer Impeachment Trial Is Lost By Governor

SECOND DAY OF TRIAL

Attracts But Few Spectators to the Court Room—Judge Declares the Trial Greatest Since Johnson Impeachment.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 19.—James C. Garrison, Governor Sulzer's chief graft investigator who was sent to jail by the assembly at an early hour this morning for alleged contempt of that body in refusing to answer questions, engaged counsel today to bring action looking to his release. Garrison declared in jail today that he would hold every member of the assembly responsible in the court for "illegal incarceration."

The assembly, which adjourned early this morning until noon, had not been called to order at 2 o'clock. It seemed almost impossible to secure the necessary quorum for the passage of the additional articles of impeachment against Governor Sulzer and several of the leaders declared that the new articles would not be pushed to a vote.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Albany, N. Y., Sept. 19.—Governor Sulzer's lawyers lost their first fight in the high court of impeachment today when the four senators challenged by the defense were permitted to retain their seats. The vote, which was on the question of whether the court should determine the challenges, was unanimous against such procedure. The four senators directly concerned, Frawley, Wagner, Ramsperger and Sanner, did not vote.

Immediately following the vote of the high court, the reading of the long articles of impeachment was begun. Although Presiding Judge Cullen had the right to decide the question of the qualifications of the senators for holding their seats he did not take advantage of this. He first expressed his opinion that the objections were not well grounded, and then permitted the entry clerk to vote on the case.

In advising the court Judge Cullen said no court had the right to sit in judgment on any of its members. The vote came after a morning of legal arguments between Judges Herrick and Parker, representing the defendant and prosecution, respectively. Judge Herrick's chief argument was that no man might sit both as prosecutor and judge. In reply Parker said the members of the court were here as representatives of the whole people that the people established the court of impeachment in the beginning and that none other than the people had a right to remove their representatives.

The scene within the court room this morning was vastly different from that presented yesterday. Less than half the seats in the gallery were occupied at the opening of arguments. Throughout the morning spectators moved in and out but at no time were all the seats filled. Prospects of a witness being sworn soon after the articles of impeachment were read, brought a larger crowd this afternoon.

The high court of impeachment in the case of Governor Sulzer met at 10 o'clock this morning for its second session. Senator Wagner, chairman of the committee on rules, submitted the report of the committee which was adopted without objection. The rules provide for daily sessions, except Saturday, from 10 to 12:30 p. m. and from 2 to 5 p. m. The hours may be changed from time to time by the court. The conduct of the trial is to be governed by the rules prevailing in the circuit court of the state. The rule VI reads:

"The final decision of the court upon the articles preferred shall be taken by the president of the court, who, upon each of the articles as it shall be separately read by the clerk, shall, with its member propose to each member of the court, in alphabetical order, the question: 'Senator (or Judge) how say you, is the respondent guilty or not guilty as charged in the article of impeachment?' Each member of the court, when so questioned, shall rise in his place and answer 'guilty' or 'not guilty,' and the president of the court shall also give his vote upon each article, either 'guilty' or 'not guilty,' and when the roll call shall be completed on each charge, the result upon each charge shall be announced, and shall be entered upon the records of the court. If two-thirds of the members present shall concur in the finding guilty upon any one or more of said articles, the president of the court shall in the same manner put and the matters of the court shall in the same manner answer separately, the further question: 'Shall William Sulzer be removed from his office of governor of this state, for the cause stated in the article—or articles—of the charges preferred against him upon which you have found him guilty?' 'Shall William Sulzer be disqualified to hold any office of honor, trust or profit under this state?' 'And the final judgment of the court shall be certified by the president of the court and clerk of the court.'

"Dr." Ernest Muret, Caught With Father Schmidt, Who Was Charged With Murder, and Girl Witness ed from his office of governor of this state, for the cause stated in the article—or articles—of the charges preferred against him upon which you have found him guilty?" "Shall William Sulzer be disqualified to hold any office of honor, trust or profit under this state?" "And the final judgment of the court shall be certified by the president of the court and clerk of the court."

D. Cady Herrick, leading counsel for Governor Sulzer, argued in behalf of the challenges. He announced yesterday he would object to the sitting as members of the court of Acting Lieutenant Governor Wagner and Senators Frawley, Ramsperger and Sanner. Judge Herrick stated that the objection to Senator Wagner was based upon the fact that "as acting lieutenant governor he is interested in the result of the trial as in the event of the conviction."

"This case," said Judge Herrick, "in some respects is the greatest since the impeachment trial of President Johnson. There can be no question that the senators on the Frawley committee have formed and expressed opinions on every article of impeachment."

Judge Herrick then read the articles of impeachment as adopted by the assembly, declaring that the defense's challenge is founded on "the right to seek trial by an impartial tribunal—one that is not prejudiced in advance."

At the completion of his arguments he formally challenged the right of the four senators to sit. As Judge Herrick closed, Judge Alton B. Parker, arose and began to speak without notes. "I shall contend before this high court," he argued, "that you are without authority to exclude from its membership any member. The people of the state of New York are sovereign. They said in the beginning that this court shall be composed of the court of appeals and the senate and you are without power to say to any member, whether judge or senator: 'you shall not sit in this court.'"

Judge Parker declared that the state constitution made no provision for judge, senator or counsel to challenge any member of the high court. Citing precedents established in the trial of the impeachment of President Andrew Johnson and other executives and judicial officers, he argued that the people of each senate district in the state were entitled to the vote of their representative. He recalled numerous instances where members of former courts of impeachments, who had served on committees, the reports which had resulted in the adoption of impeachment articles had requested to be excused from sitting in judgment but their request had been denied by their colleagues.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Albany, Sept. 19.—Governor Sulzer's personal friend and special graft investigator, James C. Garrison, slept last night in a cell of the Albany county penitentiary. He was remanded to that institution by the sergeant-at-arms of the state assembly for refusing to answer questions put to him after his arrest on the charge of contempt. The charge is the outgrowth of his alleged statement several weeks ago that four legislators sold their vote on the resolution impeaching Governor Sulzer.

Plans by the Sulzer faction today were to obtain a writ of habeas corpus from the Supreme Court for the release of Garrison. Majority Leader Levy said this morning, however, that such action "would be impossible as the assembly had plenary power to punish for contempt."

The Appellate Court so held in a similar case several years ago. It was stated Garrison might be kept in prison until next January when a new legislation convenes. The arrest of Garrison came as a climax after a weary evening spent by the assembly in an attempt to round up the seventy-six necessary votes to pass the resolution of impeachment against Governor Sulzer. The body finally adjourned at 2:30 o'clock this morning after an impassioned plea from Majority Leader Levy for a better attendance when the assembly convenes at noon today. Telegrams were rushed to anti-Sulzer assemblymen who are out of the city.

GOVERNOR COX NAMES OCT. 9 FIRE PREVENTION DAY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Sept. 19.—Thursday, October 9, will be Fire Prevention Day in Ohio, according to a proclamation issued today by Governor Cox. Municipalities will be asked to arrange special programs for that day to educate citizens in the prevention of fire, and to make an extraordinary effort to clean up local conditions which would make fire easy.

State Fire Marshal Defenbaugh will issue recommendations to local authorities soon regarding precautionary measures they may take as a method of observing Fire Prevention Day. Half the fire loss of $225,000,000 in the United States during 1912 was preventable, the governor's proclamation declares. "We spend vast sums in maintaining fire fighting instrumentalities and vast sums insure ourselves against loss of our property by fire, but we give scant attention to those things which would go far toward rendering fire departments necessary," reads the proclamation. "The elimination of this fire waste is a matter within the hands of our citizenship and our people must become impressed with a sense of their individual responsibility which can come about only through systematic efforts to educate the people as to their duty in this regard."

The governor asks that commercial bodies and civic societies hold meetings on October 9, citizens make careful inspection of their premises and special instructions be given in schools concerning fire prevention on that day.

October 9 is the forty-second anniversary of the great Chicago fire.

SOLDIER SHOT FROM AMBUSH EARLY TODAY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Col. M. A. H. Sept. 19.—While on picket duty at the Isle Royale mine in the copper miners strike zone before daylight this morning, Randolph Avery, a private of Company A, Kalama-zoo, was shot from ambush and seriously wounded. The shooting is believed to have been done by a strike sympathizer. A big demonstration is planned by the Western Federation of Miners at Calumet Sunday noon. The strikers will be addressed by John H. Walker, president of the Illinois Mine Workers.

ARRIVAL OF STEAMER WITH BODY

Remains of Late Mayor Gaynor Are Taken to His Brooklyn Home

POLICE FORM ESCORT

After Having Waited at the Pier Since 9 O'clock Last Night—The Body to Lie in State in the New York City Hall.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Sept. 19.—The body of William J. Gaynor, mayor of New York, who died at sea September 10 last, today lies in the privacy of his Brooklyn home.

In a drizzling rain it was lowered at 4 o'clock this morning from the deck of the liner Lusitania to the city's boat correction. Through a mist that lay heavy over the harbor the Correction steamed an hour and a half later to Pier A at the Battery. There a picked squad of one hundred policemen, who had stood all night in the rain, formed its escort to Brooklyn. The funeral ship glided into the harbor and came to anchor at Quarantine at 1:20 o'clock this morning. The American flag at her stern, drooping at half mast.

A dozen stalwart sailors carried the body in its heavy lead casket from the mortuary chapel to the deck. The carpet of flowers under which it lay was removed and only the great American flag placed over the casket at Liverpool covered it as the windlass lowered it slowly twenty-five feet down an inclined plane to the deck of the Correction. Aboard the smaller boat the body was taken to a heavy draped catafalque in the center of the upper deck on which rested a coffin. The body was placed in the coffin and the lid closed; a wreath and a branch of palms were placed above it. The Correction cast off and weighed anchor a short distance away, awaiting the coming of day. The black mist had changed to gray when the engines began to throb and she started on her short journey to the Battery.

The rain had ceased and it was full day when the Correction came to rest in her slip. Eight six-foot pallbearers, four in the uniform of the fire department and four of the police, lifted the casket to their shoulders and bore it over the gang plank to the hearse. The long vigilance picked squad of mounted police sent at nine o'clock last night to the pier came to an end. They stood at attention, each man at his horse's head, as the casket was placed in the hearse and then mounting their horses led the funeral train through the deserted streets.

Their route lay through Lower Broadway and past the City Hall to Brooklyn Bridge. Over this bridge, which the mayor had so often trod on his way to and from his home, the funeral party went with measured tread. It was after 8 o'clock when they reached the late mayor's home. There the body was taken to a large room. The committee appointed by the city to receive it withdrew, the hundred policemen clattered back through the streets to their station houses, and the body was left with only the family around it. It will remain there until tomorrow night. Private funeral services will be held there tomorrow afternoon and at their conclusion the body will be taken to the City Hall, where it will lie in state until Monday morning when funeral services will be held in Trinity church.

The twelve honorary pallbearers, headed by William H. Taft, formed two lines through which the casket passed at the Gaynor home. For three blocks around the house there were stretched during the night a cordon of police to keep away the curious. The lines were still drawn today.

Rufus W. Gaynor, the mayor's son, who was with the mayor when he died, looked careworn and aged. He was at the point of collapse when he reached home and had to be assisted up the stairs. A physician was called to attend him and the mayor's widow, both of whom were suffering from shock.

A band of children on their way to school stood in a group at the doorway as the body was taken from the hearse. They would have been sent away by the police had not Robert Adamson, the dead mayor's secretary forbidden it.

"Let the children come into the house," he said, "they were the mayor's best friends."

The order was carried out. A few minutes later the children left with tears in their eyes.

RACERS FINISH DETROIT SEASON; COLUMBUS NEXT

Detroit, Sept. 19.—Today marked the close of the Grand Circuit harness racing in Detroit this season and good weather prevailed to complete a program of six races before the curtain dropped. Three of the races should have been run yesterday but have been postponed in order to stage events which rain prevented on previous days.

The set-away card included a 2:11 trot; 2:17 trot; 2:11 pace; 2:05 pace, and 2:17 pace. A free for all pace, which was expected to bring together such fast horses as Pickett and Braden Direct attracted great attention.

Two Stars Top the Money.
Detroit, Sept. 19.—Lord Dewey, winner of the Empire State trot last week at Syracuse, captured his second $10,000 race of the season yesterday, when he took the Michigan stake for 2:15 trotters at the Grand Circuit races from a field of seven in straight heats.

His victory was expected. So was that of Frank Bogash Jr. in the 2:12 pace with its purse of $5,000. Leota J. generally his closest rival, tried hard but never seriously threatened.

Only one event—the 2:20 pace—went to the limit of five heats. Homer Buchanan, driven by Geers, finally won it. It was Geers' first victory of the present meeting. The last heat was a struggle between the two boys and John H. also winner of two heats, but Cox's horse weakened on the stretch and was passed by Lord Seymour.

The 2:11 pace was a romp for Princess Margaret, the favorite, who was followed in each heat by Zanibar, Dr. B. P. and Jones George, of a field of six. Zanibar fought a merry struggle in the last heat.

The third heat was the most thrilling of the day, down the stretch, however, came seven of the horses. It appeared to be anybody's victory. Suddenly a streak of gray dashed to the front, maintained her lead to the judges' stand and won from Molly Darling, who just nosed out Jones George. Lord W. had things all her own way in the three-year-old trot. She won two straight heats and, in the second, finished more than two lengths ahead of Frisco Lad.

In the $10,000 race, Rensens never threatened. Almost every time Geers attempted to drive him he broke. Take in the last heat, when it appeared as though he might have a chance, he lost his stride. The first heat was the hardest fought, but in each of the three Lord Dewey won with a mild drive.

First Things

The first of the Rothschilds, founder of the great financial firm, was Mayer Anselm, who died in the ghetto of Frankfort-on-the-Main, in Germany, 101 years ago today. He was the son of Anselm Moses Bauer, a small Jewish merchant of Frankfort. His father wished Mayer Anselm to become a rabbi, but he preferred business and set up as a money lender in the Frankfort Judengasse. His business sign was a "rothschild," or red shield, and this in course of time became his legal name. He negotiated several great government loans, and left a considerable fortune at his death to be divided between his ten children, five sons and five daughters. One of the sons remained in Frankfort and the others established branches of the house of Rothschild in London, Vienna, Paris and Naples. On his death bed old Mayer Anselm admonished his five stalwart sons to continue faithful to the religion of Israel; to remain united to the end; to intermarry with members of their own family, and to obey their mother in all things. "Observe these rules," he whispered with his dying breath, "and you will become the wealthiest and most powerful of men, and the world will belong to you." His sons and their descendants have with rare exceptions, followed this advice, and the predictions of Mayer Anselm's mundane valedictory have been more than fulfilled.

KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES DISAPPEAR

Chronic Sufferers Find Relief After Few Doses of Croxone.

If you are bothered with backache—or rheumatism, have disagreeable annoying bladder or urinary disorders to contend with or suffer with any other of the many miseries that come from weak kidneys, here is a guaranteed remedy you can depend upon. It is a positive fact that Croxone promptly overcomes such diseases. It soaks right in and cleans out the stopped up kidneys and makes them filter and sift out the poisonous waste matter from the blood. It neutralizes and dissolves the uric acid that lodges in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; soothes and heals the delicate linings of the bladder. More than a few doses of Croxone are seldom required to relieve even the obstinate, long standing cases. You will find Croxone entirely different from all other remedies. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it without results. An original package costs but a trifle, and your druggist is authorized to return the purchase price if Croxone fails to give the desired results the very first time.

WELL KNOWN BANKER DEAD.

ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM
WOOSTER, Sept. 19.—E. W. Thompson, aged 42, cashier of the Citizens' National bank, died last evening. He was forced to quit work a month ago.

Mr. Thompson was a native of Delaware county. He is well known in banking circles and as a purchaser of municipal bonds.

A Great Opportunity

NEWARK PUBLIC NIGHT SCHOOL

The Board of Education of the City of Newark has decided to open a Night School, under the following conditions:

Time and Place

The school will be in session in the High School Building on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings, from 7:00 to 9:15 o'clock. The first session will be on Monday evening, October 20th.

Branches of Study Offered

Common Branches—Arithmetic, Spelling, Reading and Writing.
Commercial Branches—Bookkeeping, Typewriting and Shorthand.
Industrial Branches—Manual Training, Cooking, Sewing and Mechanical Drawing.

Classes may be formed in other subjects, in case there is a demand, but there will be no class in any subject mentioned above, unless the number desiring it justifies the organization of a class.

Day of Registration

The Superintendent of Schools will be in his office from 8:00 a. m. to 5 p. m. on Thursday, September 25th, when all persons who desire to enter Night School should register. It is very important that this be done on this day in order that teachers may be selected and the organization perfected.

Charges and Tuition

1. All pupils must furnish their own books, paper and other supplies.
2. No pupil will be admitted to the Night School who is a member of the Day School, or who is under the age required to secure an Age and Schooling Certificate under the law, which is 15 years for boys and 16 years for girls.
3. Pupils under 21 years of age who study Spelling, Reading, Writing or Arithmetic, will not be charged any tuition.
4. Pupils over 21 years of age who study Spelling, Reading, Writing or Arithmetic, must pay in advance 75c per month.
5. All pupils studying Commercial or Industrial branches must pay in advance at the rate of $1.00 per month for each branch, regardless of the age of the pupil.
6. Twelve consecutive sessions shall constitute a month, and no reduction of tuition will be allowed for absence, excepting to those who are compelled to attend on alternate weeks, on account of night employment.
7. The School shall be in session sixty nights, or five months, unless the Board of Education should discontinue it on account of poor attendance or lagging interest.
8. The School is open to married as well as single people, and to foreign born, as well as native born.

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

GOOD TIME HAD AT STAG ELK OUTING

The last stag outing of the Elks occurred yesterday at the Beach and club house and a splendid time was had by all present. There were various forms of amusement and exciting water contests helped to make the occasion one long to be remembered.

In the prize contests Bertie Collins was awarded a box of cigars for being the best looking man on the grounds. Frank Schimpf was awarded a watch fob and charm for singing the best solo and Chairman William Broome was presented with a handsome one dollar shaving outfit provided he would agree to refrain from telling fish stories for the balance of the year. The presentation speech was made by Frank Garry and was a gem. Colonel George Warner gave an exhibition of fancy swimming and Bush Sargeant instructed a class of baby Elks in casting. In a rowing contest between Messrs. Frank Neighbor, Earl Murphy and Frank Cherry, the former was successful and was presented with a handsome scarf pin.

Just to enliven things "Si" Ball caught a large fox squirrel in one of the club rooms with his bare hands. Any one doubting the fact can inspect the hole that the rodent bit through Mr. Ball's thumb on his right hand.

Before leaving for home Steward "Bill" Hohl called the members together under the big elm trees and on behalf of the lodge presented the entertainment committee, Messrs. W. H. Broome, Frank Schimpf and Frank Garry, each with a set of diamond studded cuff buttons, for the excellent manner in which they had conducted the season's outings. The response was made by Chairman Broome, who in a voice choking with emotion stated that it was an honor to serve such a jolly bunch and that the recipients of the handsome and costly presents would always have excellent cause to remember the outings of 1913. Mr. Broome then issued an invitation to all to join with him in helping to celebrate his next natal anniversary which will take the form of a lamb roast at his cottage at the lake in the near future.

The chicken dinner served at the outing was prepared under the supervision of Joseph Kuster, Jr. It was pronounced one of the best ever prepared by Mr. Kuster, whose dinners have a reputation extending far beyond the confines of Licking county.

(Special to the Advocate)
Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 19.—After three days of the keenest pleasure imaginable, Company B of the Old Guard, Newark's crack organization of Civil War veterans, departed at 1 o'clock this afternoon for Newark. The party, nearly fifty in number, occupied the same tourist sleeper in which they made the trip to this city. The same car crew made the entire trip through to Chattanooga and will return with the party.

The Old Guard, both Company B of Newark and Company A of Columbus, received a great ovation in the parade which was a feature of Thursday's program. Round after round of applause greeted the uniformed veterans as they marched to the stirring music furnished by the respective drum corps of the two companies. The Newark "boys" received their share of the applause and most of them lifted their chins a bit higher or carried their shoulders a bit more erect as their memories carried them back to the days when they marched, not for pleasure but for business of a grim nature.

The majority of the members of the Newark company had never visited Chattanooga or the historic battlegrounds in the vicinity of this city. They enjoyed every minute of the time making daily trips to points of interest at Chickamauga, Mission Ridge and Lookout Mountain.

The entire party was loud in its praise of the splendid entertainment afforded the visiting veterans. The program was well arranged, contained many interesting features and the people of Chattanooga proved themselves to be royal hosts.

The party expects to reach Newark some time before noon Saturday. Capt. Matt Bausch is in command.

Society

Announcement is made of the marriage in New York two weeks ago of Miss Anna Reigger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mat Reigger of Granville street, to Mr. Edgar Winsel of New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Winsel are spending their honeymoon in the east. The bride is a graduate of St. Francis de Sales High school and has studied music extensively.

Mrs. William P. Miller has issued invitations for an afternoon thimble party on Tuesday of next week at her home in West Church street.

A dinner party of delightful appointments was given on Thursday evening by Mrs. Abram Miller and Miss Mary Miller at their home in West Church street. The hostesses entertained out of compliment to Mrs. George N. Safford of Rockford, Ill., and to Mrs. James H. Smith and family who leave for California, where they will make their future home in San Diego.

The decorations all bespoke of the approaching festival of Halloween. The color feature was yellow. Marigold formed the centerpiece and the table was lighted with Halloween lanterns and yellow candles.

The dinner guests were: Mrs. Geo. N. Safford, Rev. and Mrs. Don Tella, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Ed C. Miller, Mrs. James H. Smith, Mrs. William P. Miller, Misses Dora Lisle, Frances Smith, Julia Smith, Katherine Elizabeth Miller, Harriet Miller and Don Lanthor Tella. The hostesses were assisted in entertaining by Miss Anna Weigand and Miss Lillian Kammerer.

UDENHOFFER-PRATT.
Married, by Rev. W. D. Ward at his home, 23 West Locust street, Wednesday evening, at five o'clock, John I. Udenhoffer and Mrs. Carrie F. Pratt, both of Newark. Mr. Udenhoffer has been employed in the B. & O. freight house. Mrs. Pratt, for several years, has conducted a rooming and boarding house on North Fourth street. They are splendid people. They will live in Newark for the present.

Miss Zoe Fulton wishes to publicly acknowledge her sincere appreciation of the splendid manner in which the committee and members of the Y. W. C. A. assisted in making the recent concert a complete success; also of the generous loan of the columns of the daily newspapers for publicity, and the kind patronage of the Newark people.

JOY RIDERS SHOT. POLICE SEEKING MISSING HUSBAND

(Associated Press Telegram)
San Francisco, Sept. 19.—Mrs. Kate Coulson, 35 years old, was shot in the neck today and George Jovack, night watchman in a garage, and William Acker, a chauffeur, were shot dead, after the three had been riding most of the night in an automobile. A. R. Coulson, husband of the woman, is being sought by the police. Mrs. Coulson is believed to be fatally hurt.

Miss Zoe Fulton, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Judge and Mrs. Thos. E. Fulton, of East Main street, will return to Pittsburgh Saturday to resume her duties as contralto soloist of the second Presbyterian church.

FATHER RYAN IS TENDERED A RECEPTION

The school hall at the St. Francis de Sales school was filled with representative members of the congregation of St. Francis de Sales church on Thursday evening, when a farewell reception was tendered Rev. Father J. M. Ryan, who has been assistant pastor.

Father Ryan has been assistant to Rev. Father B. M. O'Boylan for the past five years and during that period has greatly endeared himself to the congregation and all his associates by his earnestness of purpose and his kindly endeavor. Father Ryan goes to Bellaire this evening where he has been appointed assistant pastor to Father Whitman.

The meeting was presided over by Rev. Father O'Boylan and on behalf of the congregation Mr. Ray Martin delivered the address telling of the great loss the congregation felt in the removal of Father Ryan. It told of his great efforts and still greater accomplishments in the behalf of the congregation. Then a check was presented to the honor guest, as a token from the entire congregation.

Greatly affected, Father Ryan mastered his emotions and told of the pleasure his work had been and of the benefits he had derived from it. He paid a glowing tribute to Father O'Boylan, who he said, had been his guide and counselor and had moved him to greater endeavors. He expressed thanks and appreciation for the many kindnesses shown him.

Father O'Boylan dwelt at length upon the camaraderie existing between Father Ryan and himself. He said his assistant was progressive and anxious to prove worthy of his calling. Father O'Boylan said he could pay no greater tribute to any assistant he had ever had than to Father Ryan.

Addresses were also made by Rev. Father Watterson and Rev. Father T. J. Ruane of Lancaster, who succeeds Father Ryan as assistant curate in this diocese.

Following the talks an informal reception was held, all taking the opportunity to shower best wishes upon the departing priest.

EXPERTS TESTIFY IN SMITH CASE AT SPRINGFIELD

(Associated Press Telegram)
Springfield, O., Sept. 19.—Expert testimony on the part of the state in the second trial of Dr. A. B. Smith, charged with the murder of his first wife by poison, was interrupted today by the introduction of the first bit of motive testimony in the case thus far. The witness was Miss Margaret Griffith, a nurse in the City Hospital. The witness was employed at the hospital at the time the second Mrs. Smith was a nurse there. She said she had seen Smith talking to Miss Merchant in the corridors before the death of the first Mrs. Smith and that she had seen them walking together shortly after the defendant's wife's death.

Expert testimony was adduced from C. C. Howard of Columbus and Prof. O. F. Marchworth, chief chemist of the state dairy and food department. In all no less than ten experts will have testified in the case before it closes.

FINAL SESSION OF CONVENTION

(Associated Press Telegram)
Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 19.—The sovereign grand lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows began its final session today expecting to dispose of all unfinished business before its final adjournment tonight. The day's work included the election of officers. Tonight the prizes will be awarded to the winners in the contests participated in during the week by the cantons and the degree teams of the lodges.

TEAMSTER FINED $25.

You can't abuse mules and go scott free.
Such is the gist of Magistrate D. M. Jones in the case of Humane Officer James Harris against Will Yardley. Appeal was filed in common pleas court Friday. Magistrate Jones found Yardley guilty and fined him $25 and costs.
Harris' affidavit charged that Yardley drove his mules and tortured them with harness rubbing over sores where the flesh had been rubbed raw. Yardley is a teamster.

Stein, a medical practitioner. Thus far Muret has denied all knowledge of the manner in which Anna Amuller met her death.

While steps are being taken to have a jury pass upon the sanity of Hans Schmidt, bit upon bit evidence was piling up linking closer and closer the lives of the slayer of Anna Amuller and his alleged counterfeiting partner, Dr. Ernest Muret.

The prisoner, whose very right to the name he claims and to the cloth he wore, is being called in question, grew morose in his cell and talked little. Muret appeared in court to plead guilty and be held on the charge of having a dangerous weapon in his possession. But this charge was more of a formality than anything else, serving merely to hold him in the hands of the state authorities while the mysterious twists and turns of his many-sided life are being followed up and his association with the Amuller girl's murderer traced to its beginning.

The pseudo-genius, which appears from information the authorities already have acquired in their search to have practiced medicine under other names in Chicago, England and on the continent, has been thought by the police almost from the beginning to bear some blood relation to Schmidt. This the advice from Aschaffenburg, Germany, Schmidt's birthplace, that Muret is now believed to be the murderer's cousin, Adolf Mueller, caused little surprise among the investigators.

The developments, bringing with it the statement that the cousins were close friends and that Mueller long ago disappeared, was, perhaps, the most important of any along the line of inquiry which seeks to establish a connection of long standing between the two men. It came out also, however, through the discovery of an engraver who made copper plates for Schmidt, that Muret, as he now calls himself, seemingly had far closed knowledge than he has at any time admitted of Schmidt's counterfeiting operations, having accompanied Schmidt to the engraver's shop when the plates were secured.

As for Schmidt himself, the many aliases he has used led Inspector Faurot, in charge of the case, to suspect that the clerical prisoner might not be the Hans Schmidt of Aschaffenburg but an impostor. This theory, while somewhat at cross-purposes with that which has brought out the supposed blood relationship between the real Schmidt and Muret was considered by the inspector worth while following up.

CROWDS ARE FLOCKING TO THE CARNIVAL

Thursday night was a busy one for the Barrot Amusement company's various attractions at the carnival grounds. Eleventh and Main streets. Hundreds flocked to the grounds and good weather conditions aided in bringing liberal patronage. Persons who have visited the grounds agree that the attractions are the highest class, clean and entertaining.

Prof. Angelo Mummolo's Italian band played a delightful concert program Thursday night, and again on the public square Friday afternoon. Large crowds are attracted by the concert.

The motorhome, which was not operated Thursday night on account of slippery tracks following the heavy rain, was put into commission Friday afternoon, and will prove one of the big attractions of the exhibition. The company closes its engagement here with Saturday night's exhibition, and will leave for Parkersburg, W. Va., Sunday.

Mrs. George Earl, Mrs. Alice Muckley and Mrs. Martin Gannon of Massillon, O., who came here to attend the reunion of the 76th regiment, arrangers of Mr. and Mrs. John Hiler of Granville street.

Little Benny's Notebook

Mr. Lewis, which is pops friend, was over at our house last nite, and he sed to pop, I herd a funny wun, uthir nite, its apposed to be troo, in a man was awn a street car and the konduktor calms up to him and sed, Did I get yure fare, and the man sed, Did you, I dont no, how do you expect me to remember if you dont, and the konduktor was so fussed he jest wawked away without saying eny more about it.

His ha, that's a good wun, sed pop, I sertynly enjoy heering of sumthing beeing put ackross awn wun of these fresh konduktors, darn if I dont believe ill try it myself.

This afternoon pop and me was kuming hoam awn a trolley car, beeing a pritty krowdwd car, and the konduktor calm alawng saying, Fares please, fares please, and wen he got up to pop he sed, Did I get yures.

Wats that, sed pop, wats that. I say, did I get yure fare, sed the konduktor, plenty of room up frunt, plenty of room up frunt, I say, did I get yure fare, are you deaf.

O, you want to no if you got my fare, do you, sed pop.

Yes, thats fixakly wat I want to no, sed the konduktor, and I aint got awl day to stay here diskussing it eethir.

Ah, I see, sed pop, well, my good man, if you, a man who spends praktikally his hole life remembering who payed there fares and who didnt are unabel to remember, how in the world do you expect me, a mere passenger, to remember.

Look heer, sed the konduktor, very lowd, Ive had enuff of this munkey bizniss, have you payed yure fare or aint you and if you didnt eehir pay up and shut up or get awl this car.

Reely, my deer fello, sed pop, if you yureself are unabel—

Dont go starting that stuff agen, now, yelled the konduktor, I bleeve yure trying to get out of paying, thats wat I bleeve, and for 2 pins id kall the motorman to help me throw you awl.

Pay yure fare like a man, sed a far man setting neckst to pop.

These ded beets get my gote, sed a skinnie man awn the uthir side, of the kar.

Did you pay or didnt you, and if you didnt are you going to or aint you, sed the konduktor.

Goodniss, havent you eny sents of humor, sed pop.

Nevvir mind wat I got or wat I aint got, sed the konduktor, Im a bizy man and this munkey bizniss has got to stop.

It has stopped, sed pop. And he gave the konduktor a dime, 5 for him and 5 for me, saying, I bleeve in sun, things Lewis is a darn fool.

OFFER NUMEROUS SITES FOR NEW PENITENTIARY

Columbus, O., Sept. 19.—So numerous are the communities that are offering sites for the new farm penitentiary, which the state proposes to build at the instance of Governor Cox, that the penitentiary commission has decided to hold a public hearing next Wednesday to allow all of them to press their claims.

It starts out with four requirements that the farm be located in the central part of the state, that it be of reasonable fertility, that it have plenty of water, and accessible to a rail road.

Coshocton county so far offers the best site. It has 2,000 acres of land underlaid with a couple of veins of coal, and part of it contains clay suitable for brick making. This is regarded as a great inducement, as Gov. Cox is of the opinion that the state should make brick roads.

Sites also are offered at Newark, Waynesville, Gloucester, Akron, Blacklick and in Stark, Pickaway and Franklin counties.

Today in Pugilistic Annals

1899—Kid McCoy knocked out Australian Steve O'Donnell in sixth round at New York. The Hoosier and the Australian had fought before, going ten rounds to a draw, and had become bitter enemies. McCoy, never tender in his treatment of his antagonists, paid off the old score with interest. The Australian was 15 pounds heavier than the Kid, but even with that advantage he didn't stand a chance. McCoy stood off and slashed O'Donnell's face to strips and ribbons, while the Australian landed hardly a blow. In the sixth, having reduced O'Donnell's face to a bleeding pulp, McCoy mercifully knocked him out. It was a brutal fight and should have been stopped in the first round or two.

1866—Mike McGoolie stopped Bill Davis in 34 rounds at Rhodes Point, Missouri.

1912—Johnny Kilbane defeated Eddie O'Keefe in 10 rounds at New York.

It would take a mighty lot of pull for some fellows to pull themselves together.

LISTEN MOTHER DO BE CAREFUL

If Child's Tongue is Coated or It is Cross and Feverish, Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages, and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

CITY ENTITLED TO 50 SALOONS ONLY UNDER NEW LAW

In the neighborhood of a half dozen blanks to be filled out for formal protest against granting liquor licenses have been given out by the county license commission in answer to requests. This is the only indication of activity looking toward protests against the 101 remaining applicants for license in this county.

Forty-six applicants are doomed to rejection, say the commissioners, who now have concluded that Newark will be entitled to only fifty saloons, and that the 404 persons above the 25,000 mark will not entitle Newark to an extra saloon. These fifty, with five in the county outside Newark, fixes the limit as fifty-five for Licking county. While no protests had been filed with the commission up to Friday afternoon, the call for blanks by several individuals is taken by the commission to mean that plenty will be filed within the time specified by law—between now and November 5.

It is likely that no action will be announced with regard to protests filed, until all hearings are ended, when all successful applicants will be notified and the names announced by the commission.

A man sprinting away from his opportunities demonstrates that the race is not always to the swift.

SEVERE CRITICISM FOR HOUSE RULES

Minnesota Man Quits Powerful Committee as Result.

HOUSE TOO BIG TO REFORM.

Minority Members Complain Because They Have So Little Voice in Shaping Legislation—More Freedom of Debate and General Privileges Are Greatly Desired.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Sept. 19. — [Special.] — Two Minnesota men recently severely criticised the methods of the house of representatives. Mr. Anderson carried his resentment so far as to resign from the ways and means committee, the most important committee in the house, in order to emphasize the fact that minority members of that committee have no voice in shaping legislation. Mr. Lindbergh was more mild, but his criticism was none the less severe. He said in beginning to discuss the currency bill that as he had only an hour he did not want to be interrupted.

"Any member can get an hour to discuss a personal grievance," he said, "or any trivial matter, but only an hour is allotted to discuss the most important measure that has come before congress. The house is growing in disfavor because it takes weeks to consider trifles and runs the time short when matters of importance are considered."

House Cannot Reform.

The house has gone beyond the period of reform because it has increased its size every ten years until it has become so unwieldy that it must be run on the close corporation plan. The leaders long ago saw that the larger the house the more power was given to that select few who were leaders and took control of legislation. There were no more severe critics of the methods of the republican congress than the men who are now running the Democratic congress. When they came into power they found that the only way to manage the large body was to take control by the same old methods, using the party whip and drastic rules just as their predecessors had done. It is the way to accomplish results, but it affords cause for criticism by those who want more freedom of debate and general privilege of making amendments.

Value of a Citizen.

When the house passed a resolution paying $5,000 to compensate an Italian family for the loss of a man's life Congressman Austin of Tennessee became indignant. "I want to protest," he said, "against what has been done before. Here you pay $5,000 for an Italian, but this house has fixed the value of a citizen's life at $1,500 and even as low as $500 in paying claims for lives lost while on government work, and often that is all that a widow with several children has to support herself and orphans."

Each a Poet.

No one suspected that Congressman Esch was a poet until Congressman Adamson sprung it on the house in advocating a light on Navassa island, West Indies. It seems that on one of the trips to Panama the Wisconsin congressman turned loose seven stanzas on the rock called Navassa, and now the Georgia congressman has enbalmated them in the Congressional Record, and it is very good poetry that Esch turned loose about the lonely rock in the Caribbean sea, which is now the site of a United States light-house.

Down to Fighting Weight.

Minority Leader Murdock in discussing the currency bill said something about the Progressive party and expansion of the currency.

"Judging from the news from Maine," interrupted Glass of Virginia, "the Progressive party is chiefly in favor of contraction."

"The Progressive party has just got down to fighting weight," retorted Murdock.

Pooh Bahs in Finance.

Congressman Mondell claimed that under the Glass bill the secretary of the treasury became the Pooh Bah of finance.

"Didn't you vote for the Vreeland-Aldrich bill," asked Chairman Glass, "which made the secretary of the treasury the sole dispenser of $500,000,000 of currency?"

"A very different proposition," replied the Wyoming man.

"In other words, that was your Pooh Bah and not my Pooh Bah."

Two Sides to It.

Senator Nelson of Minnesota rather surprised the senate by asserting that there were two sides to the matter of speculation in farm products. He declared that the farmers thought that it often brought them higher prices. It gave them two markets, the millers and the speculators.

"I am interested in the farmers," said Nelson. "These people who are foolish enough to bet on baseball or gamble in wheat and cotton are a set of gamblers. Even if part of the wheat buyers are nothing but gamblers, they have no objection if the farmers get a little better price for their wheat."

Men from the cotton states claim that the speculators on the exchanges control prices so as to injure the cotton producer.

There is plenty of room at the top, except in a crowded sleeping car.

Have You Seen Those Beautiful Autumn And Winter Garments

Newark's Most Complete Line Awaits You

The best of the new Fall Fashions in Coats, Suits, Dresses, Skirts and Waists are now here in one mammoth, bewildering display. You cannot imagine how we in the store admire them. ## THE HOME BUILDING ASSOCIATION COMPANY OF NEWARK, OHIO

A FEW MAY FIND

"A Royal Road to Wealth." A rich uncle MAY find out MAY return from the Klondike and give you half of a million dollar gold mine.

You MAY find a box of buried money in the back yard.

Some man whom you gave a meal when he was down and out MAY return from the Klondike and give you half of a million dollar gold mine.

These things MAY happen, but the man who waits for them usually dies poor.

The sure way to be one well off is to work and save, and deposit your savings where they will be safe—in this strong Association.

This may not be an alluring plan; it may not, at first thought, appeal to the imagination as do rich uncle and gold mines, but it is a plan that makes solid citizens, comfortable homes and has built many a fair-sized fortune.

DR. M. H. LYON SCORES SCANDAL AT CARNEGIE, PA.

Carnegie, Pa., Sept. 19.—Evangelist Milford H. Lyon, whose campaign at Newark was commenced just one year ago September 22, is attracting large crowds here though his meetings have been in progress only a few days.

At the big tabernacle last night Dr. Lyon concluded his series of addresses on "The Ten Commandments." Concerning the ninth law he said "Apply three tests to every scandal you hear—is it true? What is the motive in telling it? What would be gained by having it made public? When a physician diagnoses a case of disease he usually asks the patient to show the tongue. Were I to diagnose the moral condition of this or any other community I would begin by examining the tongues of the people. The tongue can be trained only by the grace of God. A lie is half brother to every crime in the category. Like Dog Tray it is condemned for its bad company."

"From the boy who plays marbles for pennies, to the millionaire who gambles on the stock exchange there is a spirit of dishonesty running through our civilization. Multitudes are trying to get something for nothing. God calls a person of that sort a thief."

Dr. Lyon's most startling sentences, however, were addressed to those who disobey the Seventh Commandment. Here are some of them: "Happy marriages are resulting in countless divorces. You never knew of an epidemic in your life that spread so well. There are more broken marriages than there are fallen women and more than there are fallen men. Dance halls are the breeding stations for disorderly houses. Every daughter as well as every son should be taught some lessons of earning an honest living. Better young women, that you go through life alone and be divided an old maid than that you be yourself a shameful living corpse, a cross between a disorder and a beer keg, a fellow for whom you must make allowances as long as you live."

His speech will close tonight's meeting at this tabernacle.

WOMAN WEIGHING 750 IN SEARCH OF A HOMESTEAD

St. Louis, Sept. 19.—Her husband, three sisters, two brothers and a nephew were required to help the stoutest woman who ever crossed through St. Louis, to board a train last night. She was Mrs. Lizzie Gion, and according to her husband, she has the team at the pounds. The Gions came here from Cleveland, O. They declared they had covered 100 miles in a vain search for a homestead through Canada and the western part of the United States.

ARMY MANEUVERS ABOVE THE CLOUDS BY MOUNTAINEERS

Geneva, Switzerland, Sept. 19.—A remarkable program of military maneuvers above the clouds was brought to an end today by 500 mountaineers, who have been engaged for some days in a series of movements among the highest peaks of the Alps.

The final maneuver was an attack on an imaginary army in occupation of the Eggishorn, a mountain 10,000 feet high. The battalion of 500 hardy Alpinists descended this morning from the Jungfrau Joch, 11,149 feet high where they had bivouacked in snow throughout the night. They executed a forced march across the perilous Aletsch glacier during a driving snow storm without the loss of a single man from fatigue and concluded the splendid feat by storming the Eggishorn Heights.

HELD CONVENTION IN A CEMETERY

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 19.—What is said to be the first session of a convention ever held in a cemetery was held yesterday in Forest cemetery here when the members of the Association of American Cemetery Superintendents in 27th annual convention, transferred their deliberations from a local hotel. The convention will be brought to a close today.

LIVE YOUR LIFE AND LIVE IT WELL

Your Hopes and Aims Never Reach the Height of Desire When Physically Unprepared.

You've got one life to live and the span is short. You've got a brief time to do what you ought to do—what you want to do.

You can be somebody or nobody and ought to be happy and healthful and good health means you happy.

If you are nervous, irritable, have the blues—if your food doesn't nourish you—if you get tired out doing the simplest things—if you've lost interest in your affairs—you are in need of a special tonic.

You need this special tonic to steady your nerves, to get you back in fine fiber and muscle strength again.

The great tonic for such condition is now to be had today.

Wendell's Ambition Pills is this special tonic. Get it from Evans' Drug Store and the druggist is authorized to refund your money if results are not as expected.

GAS RATE CUT TO TWENTY CENTS AT SANDUSKY, O.

Sandusky, Sept. 19.—Although threatened with a shutting off of gas December 7, when the contract with the city expires, the city council passed an ordinance fixing the rate at twenty cents a thousand cubic feet for two years.

ZANESVILLE IS WINNER OF ODD GAME THURSDAY

The odd game of a series of three between the golf teams representing the country club of Newark and Zanesville was won by Zanesville on the Coshocton Country Club course Thursday afternoon with a score of 17 to 9, giving the Zanesville team the advantage of two games to one for Newark.

The contest was interesting and hugely enjoyed by all the players. A luncheon at the Coshocton Country Club preceded the contest and the players enjoyed the dinner together before departing for their homes in the evening.

WOULD OBSERVE COLUMBUS DAY AS GENERAL HOLIDAY

Boston, Sept. 19.—A movement to make Columbus day a generally recognized Pan-American holiday by joining the observance in this country with "Discoverer day," already an event in several Latin-American countries, is to be launched during the Boston-Columbus Day celebration.

John Barrett, director of the Pan-American Union, will be the principal speaker at a meeting to be held in Faneuil Hall and it is expected that he will sound the call for general observance of October 12, as a holiday by American countries.

INDIGESTION, GAS, DYSPEPSIA GONE

"Pape's Diaprepain" acts sour, bloated stomachs and you feel free in five minutes—Time it!

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diaprepain and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diaprepain occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diaprepain which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

B. & O. INSTALLS TRAINED NURSE

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad has placed a trained nurse on its pay roll at Chicago Junction, O., where the young woman will be connected with the hospital staff and will devote her time to caring for railroad employees confined to the institution on account of sickness. The hospital is connected with the Railroad Branch of the Young Men's Christian Association. Chicago Junction is one of the large terminals of the northwestern lines of the Baltimore and Ohio System, being the point of intersection of the lake lines with the main route to Chicago. Several hundred railroad men from three divisions of the road run in and out of Chicago Junction, and a feature of the hospital is that the railroad men while laying off between runs can secure medical attention for minor ailments or they can enter the hospital any time that illness warrants it.

Bitten by a Snake While Hurrying to a Dying Daughter

Crooksville, Sept. 19.—Mrs. Carrie Drake, aged 25, is dead from typhoid fever, and her mother, Mrs. Perley Deaver, aged 54, lies at the point of death today as the result of a rage with Death.

Mrs. Deaver lives east of Crooksville and when notified that her daughter was dying, she set out across the fields for her daughter's home here. Enroute she was bitten by a snake and it was necessary to bring her the remainder of the way in an ambulance. When the conveyance reached the Drake home the daughter was dead. The snake bite, combined with excitement and fright, it is believed, will prove fatal to Mrs. Deaver.

Theatres

The Light Eternal.

"The Light Eternal," a serious, thoughtful play, handsomely costumed, worthily presented, and staged with a richness and artistic judgment seldom equalled, will be presented at the Auditorium to-night.

It is a serious, though stirring drama, carried to a conclusion relentlessly tragic—serving, like its exemplars, "Ben Hur" and "The Sign of the Cross," to illustrate the devotion of the early Christian martyrs. It does not aim to gratify the morbid either by the gruesome presentations of torture as the "The Sign of the Cross," or by the seductive pictures of Bacchalian revelry as in "Quo Vadis." Its inspiration is found in a clean and decent dramatic plot, and its appeal extends alike to all classes that find interest in the truthful and convincing historical spectacle heightened by a master touch of human interest.

A Double Deceiver.

After the many problem plays that have been claiming the attention of theatre goers lately, it will be a relief to see Norman Hackett in his refining, new, comedy-drama, "A Double Deceiver," at the Auditorium Saturday, matinee and night. Mr. Hackett's play tells a cheerful, thrill-in-entertaining story, which has for its background the beautiful tropical Spanish settings of South America. It is embellished with special music, rich coloring, and the fascinating atmosphere associated with that romantic country. Delightful comedy punctuates the action of the play throughout and in the role of "Ambrose R. Fitzgerald" Mr. Hackett has an opportunity to display his versatility for light comedy touches which reveals this talented actor's personality in a new and most attractive light. The play has been founded on one of O. Henry's famous stories.

Mr. Hackett will receive the support of an excellent company, including the well known actor J. Maurice Sullivan, Ilka, Marie Diehl, Blanche Seymour, Burton Robbins, Edward Sudorff, Anna Berger Price, Carl Reed, Andrew Streng and Alice Morton.

Mr. Hackett's last appearance in Newark was three years ago, when his fine performance of "Beau Brummel" was a decided success.

ARMY DESERTER SURRENDERS.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Zanesville, Sept. 19.—Tired of continually dodging the police of many cities of the country, William Young, a soldier, surrendered himself to the police here last night. He said he deserted from Troop I at San Antonio, Tex., in September, 1911, and has been constantly worrying that he would be arrested since then. He will be taken to the Columbus barracks today.

LEGISLATOR WHO ELECTED HANNA DIES IN MEXICO

Prophet Sept. 19.—John Ellsworth Griffith, former member of the general assembly, who cast the vote which elected Mark Hanna to the United States senate in January, 1898, died yesterday in Socorro, N. M., according to a message received by friends here where he was born 45 years ago.

Mr. Griffith was a representative from Union county. During the controversy which finally led to the selection for senator of Mr. Hanna over Robert E. McKisson of Cleveland, he was kidnapped, but was returned in time to cast the seventy-third and deciding ballot for Mr. Hanna.

For his services in the contest Mr. Griffith was appointed clerk of the United States district court at Socorro and served until a few days after Hanna's death, when J. B. Foraker brought influence against him. He practiced law in that city until his death.

A widow, one son and one daughter survive Mr. Griffith. The funeral was held this afternoon in Socorro, where his body will be buried.

The Season Of 1913

Copyright 1913 by The H. Black Co.

Shows many pronounced tendencies in its styles.

The most advanced ideas in styles and fabrics mark it distinct from any other season.

New fabrics, new colorings, drapings and a leaning towards trimmed garments mark this year's creations.

The sleeves are larger and there is a pronounced tendency towards more fullness in the coats.

In Our Wooltex Display

There is a great range of materials in smooth finished and rough finished fabrics in a wonderful variety of styles. The stock is fuller of new things right now than it will be any other time of the year. This week we have featured these garments and we have had a wonderful interest shown in them.

IF YOU ARE COMING TO THE CLOAK DEPARTMENT
SATURDAY COME IN THE MORNING

The great crowds that are interested in Suits and Coats at this season of the year overtaxes and crowds us, so we urge you to come Saturday morning for a satisfactory showing.

PETIT JURORS ARE TO REPORT MONDAY, OCT. 6

Were to Have Reported Earlier but
Court Changed Time—News
Found in County Offices.

Regular petit jurors will not report to Common Pleas court until Monday, Oct. 6. They were served to appear Sept. 22, but the court has ordered a change in the time.

On Friday, in the Court of Common Pleas, the court heard the arguments of counsel in the case of Andrew Hulsizer vs. the B. and O. railroad company, a suit to restrain the maintaining of a dam in the creek near Utica. The B. and O. railroad company constructed the dam for the purpose of obtaining water for the pumping station which supplies water to the company's engines. The court reserved his decision.

Elizabeth Lowry vs. Austin A. Lowry, et al., a suit brought for the partition of real estate in this county in which plaintiff has an interest. Leave was given plaintiff to file a reply to defendant's answer within five days, and the case was passed from the assignment of cases for trial.

Two Divorce Petitions.

Two petitions for divorce were filed in common pleas court Thursday. One was that of Vada Shrider vs. Peter D. Shrider, of Newark, in which the plaintiff charges extreme cruelty, neglect and habitual intoxication, and the other is that of Adie E. Green vs. Frank Green, of Johnstown.

To State Hospital.

Deputy Sheriff Henry Rinehart took two patients from this county to the state hospital for the insane, in Columbus, late Thursday. Both were committed after an examination before Probate Judge Robbins Hunter.

Only One Justice.

For the first time in a century, Newark township has but one justice of the peace, Magistrate D. M. Jones.

This particular situation is occasioned by delay of the township clerk in certifying the clerk of courts the appointment of Squire T. L. King to succeed George W. Horton, who resigned to take up his duties as district deputy state oil inspector. Mr. Horton's resignation became effective at midnight Thursday, after its acceptance by the board of trustees. Otherwise he would have been regarded as in office until his successor was duly elected and qualified.

Magistrate King expects his commission on Monday.

Marriage Licenses.

Oliver Lucas, 19, taxicab driver, Newark, and Hazel McAfee, 19, secretary to school superintendent, Newark, Rev. L. C. Sparks to officiate.

John I. Udenhoffer, 46, laborer, Newark, and Carrie F. Pratt, 48, Granville, Rev. W. D. Ward to officiate.

SENATORS

The city urging them to return here immediately. Tammany lieutenants were ordered not to permit a single man already in Albany to leave. The assemblymen are virtually prisoners in the city.

Garrison's arrest was almost as great a surprise to members of the legislature as it was to him. Arrangements were made several weeks ago to arrest him, but nothing ever was done, and he made no attempt to evade service. He has been around Albany continuously since the impeachment proceedings began, and a few moments before his detention last night he was strolling about the halls of the capitol. As he strolled into the assembly chamber to see what the body was doing, but when he attempted to depart he found himself blocked by the sergeant-at-arms, while Majority Leader Levy was presenting a resolution calling for the arrest of Garrison he was held a prisoner in a cloak room.

When called before the speaker, Garrison was without counsel and he refused to answer questions put to him. Meanwhile numerous and varying predictions were made as to what would be done with Garrison. Again Levy took the initiative and presented a resolution remanding the prisoner to the penitentiary until the close of the session unless otherwise ordered by the assembly.

The vote for the resolution was 85 to 3. A short time later Garrison was being rushed to the penitentiary.

An attack of the institution today said that the prisoner was shown no special favors, and that the prison authorities had no orders other than to hold him as an ordinary prisoner. Levy was over-pleased by the turn of affairs in the Garrison case and he declared that unless Garrison purged himself of contempt he would have to remain in jail until January.

"The assembly has plenary power to punish for contempt," he said. "Garrison also must go back to jail pending the court's decision on his application for a writ. He cannot be released on bail."

Garrison incurred the enmity of many of Sulzer's political opponents by his activities during the pending impeachment proceedings. He was called the governor's press agent by many. A session of the court of impeachment was called for 10 o'clock to adopt the rules of procedure. It was indicated before the session opened that the usual procedure of the state court of appeals would be followed. There was little likelihood of any testimony being heard today as attorney for Governor Sulzer planned to fight out their various legal objections before any other business was done.

LARGE DISPLAY OF IMPORTED HORSES AT LICKING FAIR

All imported horse displays ever held in the state are to be overshadowed in the Licking county fair this year, according to Secretary J. M. Farmer's announcement.

The finest assembly of imported stock ever shown in this section of the country, is another way the secretary puts it.

Besides a fine string of Belgian, French and Percheron horses recently imported by Colonel George W. Crawford, there will be exhibited a monster display furnished by Crouch & Son, importers, from Fayette, Ind. This latter firm is soon to open stables here and has practically concluded arrangements for a permanent stable at the fair grounds.

Not only will the horse exhibit be exceptional, but inquiries from Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Indiana with regard to general live stock entries indicate that this department will be an unusually attractive feature of this year's fair.

The county agricultural board has evolved a novel scheme for competition among the young men or folks in the corn exhibit. Prizes aggregating ten dollars for first, second and third awards, are to be offered for the best ten ears of corn displayed. Fifteen different entry divisions are open to exhibitors under this class and the youngster who pulls ten good ears from the corn field at home and brings them to the fair stands a chance of winning anything from 75 cents to $10 in prize money on his one exhibit, and considerable more if he makes other corn entries which prove prize winners.

ATTENDANCE AT DENISON GOOD

Granville, Sept. 19.—Denison University and Shepardson College began the fall registration Wednesday. The officials of the school announce that the attendance is fully up to last year. All the rooms in the boys' dormitories on the hill have been taken and many are rooming in the fraternity houses and with private families. All the rooms in the girls' dormitories at Shepardson have been engaged for some time and about forty are on the waiting list.

Miss Margaret Judson the new dean for Shepardson college has arrived and has assumed her duties.

Prof. Samuel B. Prince of Chicago, is stopping at the home of Mayor J. M. Swartz. He will be at the head of the voice department, formerly taught by Prof. J. M. Priske.

The chapel exercises the coming year will be held in the Baptist church instead of Doane Academy.

WALTERMAN WAS TOUCHED FOR $7

Charged with "touching" Nick Waltermann for a bill of $7, Mrs. Mabel Rice was taken into custody Thursday night by Patrolman Hurlbaugh. She is held at the city prison pending the filing of an affidavit some time today. According to the story related by Waltermann, he met the woman and talked with her, shortly afterwards missing his purse containing his weekly wealth. He complained to Patrolman Hurlbaugh who made the arrest. Waltermann was locked up, started with the "investigation." This morning the woman handed $5 to a police officer, asking that the prosecution be dropped. She will get a hearing before Mayor Swartz Saturday morning.

NICHOLS NAMED BY GOVERNOR

Is Appointed Chief Justice of the Ohio Supreme Court

SEN. W. A. GREENLUND

Of Cleveland Named as Lieutenant Governor to Succeed Mr. Nichols, Serving His Second Term in That Office.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, O., Sept. 20.—Governor Cox this morning appointed Hugh Nichols, of Batavia, as chief justice of the Ohio Supreme Court. The same time the governor named State Senator W. A. Greenlund of Cleveland as lieutenant governor to succeed Mr. Nichols as lieutenant governor.

Governor Cox planned some time ago to appoint Mr. Nichols to the chief justiceship but later decided to refer the whole matter to the Supreme Court. It is understood that at least four members of that body—Justices Donahue, Newman, Wilkin and Johnson, declined the appointment as its acceptance would have meant the shortening of the term for which they had been elected.

Mr. Nichols is serving his second term as lieutenant governor, he having come into that office during the second Harmon administration. His elevation to that office was brought about by the election of Alcee W. Pomerene of Canton, as United States senator.

Pomerene had been elected in 1910 with Governor Harmon but only served as lieutenant governor during the first few weeks of the administration.

Senator Greenlund, who becomes lieutenant governor, is the author of the liquor license law and of the new law governing state charities. Both Nichols and Greenlund are Democrats.

INTERESTED IN CHARITIES.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Cleveland, O., Sept. 20.—The new lieutenant governor, W. A. Greenlund, is 38 years old and aside from real estate business which he took up ten years ago, Greenlund has spent most of the time since he left high school in sociological work. He has always been interested in charities and probation work. He was head of Goodrich House, a charitable and educational institution here for a number of years.

BADLY INJURED IN RUNAWAY WHEN THROWN FROM RIG

Frank Hill, an employee at the B. & O. roundhouse, was seriously injured on Friday afternoon in East Main street when a horse he was driving ran away, throwing him against the curbing in the street.

Mr. Hill was driving the horse which is of a fractious disposition, along East Main street when it suddenly frightened and ran away. He was thrown from the rig against the curb stone, and received serious injuries about the face and head. He was removed to his home, corner of Hill and Baltimore streets, where Dr. C. P. Legge was called to dress the wounds.

Saturday morning, however, he was so ill that he was forced to remain abed and it is feared some injury to the spine has been sustained.

President's Youngest Daughter in Robes For Leading Role in "Bal Masque" Sanctuary

Miss Eleanor Wilson, youngest daughter of President Wilson, was the leading character in the "bal masque" sanctuary, given on the estate of Ernest Harold Baynes, the naturalist, at Meriden, N. H., the other day. She appeared in a pure white costume of Greek design.

In the play a protest against the importation of birds' plumes, and written by Percy Mackaye, Miss Wilson portrays the part of "Ornis," the bird spirit. Her portrayal of this character during the rehearsal brought her unstinted praise and compliments from all. Miss Margaret Wilson, another daughter of the President, agreed to sing a song. The lyric of "The Hermit Thrush," the number selected by Miss Wilson, was written by Miss Arvia Mackaye, daughter of Mr. Mackaye, when she was nine years old.

Editor J. H. Newton Has Been Recommended for the Newark Postmastership

[Special to the Advocate]

Washington, Sept. 20.—J. H. Newton of Newark, editor of the Newark, O., Advocate, was recommended yesterday by Congressman W. A. Ashbrook of the Seventeenth district, for the postmastership at Newark. The resignation of Postmaster Geo. D. Heisey has been forwarded to Postmaster General Burleson.

TWENTY INJURED IN WRECK ON ROCK ISLAND

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Manhattan, Kas., Sept. 20.—Twenty passengers were injured, one probably fatally, when passenger train No. 1 on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad, east bound from Denver and Colorado Springs to St. Louis, was derailed on a curve a mile west of here early today.

Eight coaches left the rails, one of them the combined steel baggage and smoking car, rolled down a 29-foot embankment, turning over three times and landing upside down. The sleeping compartment was full of passengers, most of whom were injured but none seriously save J. P. Baldy, of Harrington, Kansas, who was crushed by a falling trunk. He probably will die.

The smoking division of the car was inundated and the passengers scattered by a flood of cream from a canister in the baggage compartment.

WILL BE BEST MAN AT WILSON WEDDING

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Philadelphia, Sept. 20.—Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell, head of the Labrador mission for the deep sea fishermen, will act as best man for Francis B. Sayre when he is married to the President's daughter, Miss Jessie Wilson at the White House on November 23, it is said.

Dr. and Mrs. Grenfell, the latter a Bryn Mawr graduate of the class of '06, are expected in Philadelphia in a few days. They are planning to spend the winter in England.

MADE WONDERFUL RECORD.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Newport, R. I., Sept. 20.—Two center hits made with Whitehead torpedoes at 3,000 yards while running 12 feet under the surface of the sea is the remarkable record reported by the United States submarine E-1 on its return from target practice in Garretts Bay. During Wednesday's practice the E-1 under command of Lieutenant Louis D. Causey, while running submerged at full speed discharged both of her 18-inch torpedoes at a ten foot moving target. Both of the hits were bullseyes.

BOYS DESTROY DANGER LIGHTS; WARRANT ISSUED

The perverted idea of what constitutes amusement, which seized the idle brains of a number of East Newark boys, resulted in the filing of affidavits for their arrest Saturday morning. The lads are charged with the destruction of red lanterns placed as a danger signal on excavations for a sewer job in Wing street. The offense is punishable by a penitentiary sentence if the case is pushed that far.

According to the story related to the police department by the contractor, S. J. White, the lads destroyed two lanterns which had been placed on the excavation Friday night. It is charged that they knocked the lanterns into the sewer ditch by throwing stones at the lights and that the stone throwing continued until the lanterns were demolished.

Mayor Swartz in an interview Thursday warned Newark people against disturbing these danger lights. Complaints had been filed that several lanterns were stolen from a contract job on Granville street. The statement was made at that time that such action was punishable by a prison sentence.

The statutes regard any offense against the public safety as a serious matter and have provided stiff penalties for guilty parties.

Warrants in the above cases were given to police officers and the defendant's names will be brought into court Monday.

Interurban Brings Kick on Ohio Mayor

Columbus, O., Sept. 20.—That C. E. Motz, mayor of West Carrollton, is trying to use the state public utilities commission as a club on the Ohio Electric company to force a real estate deal profitable to himself, is the charge entered with the state commission today by the interurban company. Mayor Motz filed complaint some time ago that the electric company maintains no station in West Carrollton and asked the electric commission to compel the building of one. The answer of the company is that its track is bounded on one side by the Erie canal and that the only property available belongs to H. L. Newell, who is in the employ of Mayor Motz.

WILL LEAVE BANANASON FREE LIST

Decision Reached After a Long Controversy Over Subject

STUDY OF TARIFF BILL

By Conference Committee to Determine Whether It Will Produce Revenue for Governmental Needs.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Sept. 20.—The tariff conference committee today voted to leave bananas on the free list. After a long controversy in which the influence of President Wilson was thrown in favor of continued free importation of the fruit, the senate conferees receded from their amendment which would have imposed a duty of one-tenth of one cent per pound.

A critical study of the Underwood-Simmons tariff bill to determine whether it will produce enough revenue for governmental needs was still under way today when the tariff conference committee resumed work. Reductions by the senate have in many instances been opposed by the house conference on the ground that they would cut the revenue beyond the margin of safety.

Chairman Simmons of the senate conferees has announced that the bill would amply meet the revenue needs of the nation.

There was little prospect when the conference was resumed today that details of the bill could be completed before the end of next week. Supporters of the demand for free importation of works of art expressed great satisfaction today over the decision of the conference committee to remove all restrictions against free importation. Under the present law pictures and like are objects must be 20 years old to come in free. The house bill removed the restriction, but the senate increased its rigorous character by placing the age limit at 50 years. Under the new agreement all restrictions will be removed except that discretionary power will be left with the secretary of the treasury to determine the value of importations as "works of art."

The senate conferees gave way as to the duty on lemons, limes, grapefruit and similar fruits, leaving the rates as fixed by the house, based on the measurement of packages. The senate had fixed a flat rate of one-half of one cent per pound. The house rates agreed to are a slight reduction over existing rates.

PHOTOGRAPHIC INSTRUMENT FOR NIGHT PICTURES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Vallejo, Calif., Sept. 20.—A local inventor has evolved a wireless photographic instrument which works only at night and reflects in a mirror it is said, a picture for a distance of several miles.

He has induced Secretary Daniels to take the machine to Washington for examination. The instrument receives its impressions from a web of wires attached to a tall mast.

APPROVAL OF MOTHER HOLDS UP THAW CASE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Concord, N. H., Sept. 20.—The plans of the defense in the extradition proceedings against Harry K. Thaw were completed this morning and are awaiting the approval of the fugitive's mother and sister, who, with the latter's husband, George Lauder Carnegie, were expected later in the day.

Thaw was anxious to explain to his family his reasons for placing his case wholly in the hands of his New Hampshire counsel. The latter are working in complete harmony with former Governor Stone of Pennsylvania, the personal representative of the Thaw family.

Reports that Governor Felker was inclined to give Thaw his liberty and leave the final disposition of the case to the federal courts finds no support in a statement from the executive today in which he said he would approach the extradition proceedings on Tuesday with a perfectly open mind. His only determination, he said, was that justice should be done.

Thaw slept later than usual this morning and when he appeared at the breakfast table he was in the best of spirits.

"My counsel are working very hard, you know," Thaw said, "and I shall do my part."

Another Photo of Anna Aumuller, Victim of Schmidt, the Priest Under Arrest in New York

This photograph of Anna Aumuller, the victim of Hans Schmidt, the priest, who killed her, and, after carving her body, scattered pieces of it in the Hudson River, was found in the flat in which she was killed. The girl is said to have possessed more intelligence than most servants, and was particularly good looking. She was an Austrian, having come to the United States two years ago.

PEN OFFICIALS BELIEVE ROACH IS SHAMMING

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, O., Sept. 20.—Belief that Loranzo Roach, the Canton triple murderer is shamming and that he did not swallow bichloride of mercury as he claims to have done, increased among prison officials today. The prison physicians refused to give an opinion as to the truthfulness of the man's story further than to say that so far Roach has not developed the symptoms usually attendant upon poisoning of that nature.

This morning Roach asked to write a letter to Judge R. H. Day, the Stark county official who sentenced him. The request was granted. In his letter to the judge Roach seemed to be positive of living and asked if it would be possible for him to have a new trial. He wishes to enter a plea of insanity. It is the general opinion that Roach wanted newspaper notoriety in an effort to arouse public sympathy.

STRIKE IN THE BRITISH ISLES COMES TO END

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, Sept. 20.—The strike of the railroad men in the British Isles was practically brought to an end today. Officials of the companies, reached an agreement with the representative of the men's unions today on the basis of the reinstatement of all strikers who agree to handle all the traffic which the railroads are bound to carry under the law.

Indications also point to a settlement of the motor omnibus trouble on Monday.

Ask Investigation Telephone Service by New Commission

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Cleveland, O., Sept. 20.—A resolution will be presented to the city council here next Wednesday night, calling upon the state public utilities board to investigate the service given Cleveland subscribers by the Bell and Cuyahoga Telephone companies.

E. W. Doty of Cleveland, member of the state board, said today that if the resolution is passed a hearing on the matter can probably be arranged for the latter part of October. Council has been investigating numerous charges of poor service by the telephone companies.

BIG FOUR YARD STRIKE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Springfield, O., Sept. 20.—Twenty yard clerks employed by the Big Four went on a strike this morning, demanding an increase in pay from $55 to $80 a month and time and a half for overtime. The clerks say the strike will spread all over the lines.

Frederick M. Black returned home this morning from Philadelphia and Boston.

GAYNOR FUNERAL OCCURS MONDAY AT TRINITY CHURCH

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) New York, Sept. 20.—The body of William J. Gaynor, late mayor of New York, will be taken from the Gaynor home in Brooklyn late this afternoon and placed at twilight in the City Hall where it will lay in state until Monday morning.

Close friends of the Gaynor family, including a sprinkling of city officials, assembled at the Gaynor home today for the private funeral services conducted by the Rev. Franklin W. Page, of Culpeper, Virginia, for many years the pastor and close friend of the family.

Late today the body will be taken under the escort of a squadron of mounted police to the city hall. The American flag draped over the coffin when it was taken to the Lusitania at Liverpool will be replaced by the officials of the city when the body is placed in state. The body will lay in the rotunda of the city hall until Monday when it will be taken to Trinity church. The face will be exposed and all who wish to view the dead mayor may do so.

TWO SHOT DURING LABOR QUARREL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Chicago, Sept. 20.—In a labor quarrel at the headquarters of the local printers union here today two men were shot, a third, the injured Charles Carson, business agent of the union, was shot four times, wounded in the arm, waist, panting and contracting a severe wound.

The men were present when the shooting occurred. The police were called and the wounded men were taken to a hospital.

PRESIDING JUDGE OF SULZER TRIAL

Chief Judge Edward M. Cullen of the New York Court of Appeals will preside at the trial of William Sulzer, governor of New York state, who a month ago was impeached by the assembly, the lower house of the legislature. Judge Cullen has long been a member of the Court of Appeals and has stood high in the estimation of lawyers and laity.

HEARING ADJOURNS TO MONDAY

Albany Deserted, Principals in Sulzer Trial Having Left City

GOVERNOR IS SILENT

And Will Not Talk for Publication—He Denies That He Has Recognized the Right of Glynn to Act.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Albany, N. Y., Sept. 20.—Compared with its activity earlier in the week Albany was a deserted city today. All of the principal figures in the Sulzer impeachment trial were out of town, the court of impeachment having adjourned until Monday and both houses of the legislature until Thursday.

No more clashes between Governor Sulzer and Acting Governor Glynn are anticipated. The governor has not been at his offices in the capitol for two days and it is said that he will not return unless the court of impeachment acquits him. His counsel has notified Acting Governor Glynn that any attaches of the governor's office who may be of any assistance to him are at his service. Glynn will make no attempt to move into the governor's quarters but will continue to direct the state's business from his temporary headquarters. Governor Sulzer is maintaining silence. Reports that he has gone into "seclusion" are somewhat exaggerated for he frequently appears on the streets in his automobile, but he refuses to talk for publication.

Counsel for James C. Garrison, the newspaper man and former state employee, failed Thursday when he refused to answer questions propounded by the speaker of the assembly planned to start a legal fight in their client's behalf today. In the meantime Garrison remained in jail. He said the experience was novel and not unpleasant.

Governor Sulzer denied today that he had recognized the right of Lieutenant Governor Glynn to perform the duties of acting governor.

Governor Sulzer's action in transferring certain criminal business to the attention of Mr. Glynn, said his counsel, had no bearing upon the question of Sulzer's present status.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Albany, N. Y., Sept. 20.—"Governor Sulzer," said Valentine Taylor, his personal counsel, "continued to maintain the position which has been argued by his attorney before the court for the trial of impeachment, that the impeachment proceedings against him are null, void and of no effect, and that he is the governor of the state and that he is now entitled to exercise all of the functions of the office to which he was elected."

The statement of Mr. Taylor that Governor Sulzer had not recognized Mr. Glynn came as a great surprise to the office of the acting governor today. With the receipt of the communication from the governor's secretary yesterday, it was believed that the right of Mr. Glynn to exercise the functions of governor had been recognized.

During this morning Executive Legal Assistant Owen L. Potter, thinking Mr. Glynn had been recognized, offered his services to the acting governor. Other attaches testified their willingness to take orders from Mr. Glynn.

BANK SUSPECTS ARE HELD IN CINCINNATI

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Cincinnati, Sept. 20.—Three men who were apprehended in this city last Thursday and held on suspicion were today charged with being fugitives from justice in warrants sworn to by Chief of Detectives Cal. Crum. The men are James McCarthy and Carl Moran of Chicago, and Detective Walsh of New York. Detective Halpin, of the Chicago police department, is in this city in an endeavor to locate the perpetrators of the Garfield Park Bank robbery some time ago, while the police of Dayton, Ohio, are also here trying to locate the men who stole $2,000 from a bank in that city last Thursday.

PAROLE PERJURER AFTER SENTENCING

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Cleveland, Sept. 20.—O. R. Gulien, Cleveland, who yesterday pleaded guilty to swearing falsely to "forced" signatures on the Green workmen's compensation law referendum petitions, today was paroled by Judge Leishley in common pleas court after Leishley had sentenced him indeterminately to the Mansfield Reformatory.

Prosecutor Locher favored the parole, declaring that Gulien, who is a young man, was no more guilty than other petition circulators who have not been arrested.

The Season Of 1913

Copyright 1913 by The H. Black Co.

Shows many pronounced tendencies in its styles.

The most advanced ideas in styles and fabrics mark it distinct from any other season.

New fabrics, new colorings, drapings and a leaning towards trimmed garments mark this year's creations.

The sleeves are larger and there is a pronounced tendency towards more fullness in the coats.

In Our Wooltex Display

There is a great range of materials in smooth finished and rough finished fabrics in a wonderful variety of styles. The stock is fuller of new things right now than it will be any other time of the year. This week we have featured these garments and we have had a wonderful interest shown in them.

IF YOU ARE COMING TO THE CLOAK DEPARTMENT
SATURDAY COME IN THE MORNING

The great crowds that are interested in Suits and Coats at this season of the year overtakes and crowds us, so we urge you to come Saturday morning for a satisfactory showing.

PETIT JURORS ARE TO REPORT MONDAY, OCT. 6

Were to Have Reported Earlier but Court Changed Time—News Found in County Offices.

Regular petit jurors will not report to Common Pleas court until Monday, Oct. 6. They were served to appear Sept. 22, but the court has ordered a change in the time.

On Friday, in the Court of Common Pleas, the court heard the arguments of counsel in the case of Andrew Hulshizer vs. the B. and O. railroad company, a suit to restrain the maintaining of a dam in the creek near Ulica. The B. and O. railroad company constructed the dam for the purpose of obtaining water for the pumping station which supplies water to the company's engines. The court reserved his decision.

Elizabeth Lowry vs. Austin A. Lowry, et al., a suit brought for the partition of real estate in this county in which plaintiff has an interest. Leave was given plaintiff to file a reply to defendant's answer within five days, and the case was passed from the assignment of cases for trial.

Two Divorce Petitions.

Two petitions for divorce were filed in common pleas court Thursday. One was that of Vada Shriver vs. Peter D. Shriver, of Newark, in which the plaintiff charges extreme cruelty, neglect and habitual intoxication, and the other is that of Addie E. Green vs. Frank Green, of Johnston.

To State Hospital.

Deputy Sheriff Henry Rinehart took two patients from this county to the state hospital for the insane, in Columbus, late Thursday. Both were committed after an examination before Probate Judge Robbins Hunter.

Only One Justice.

For the first time in a century, Newark township has but one justice of the peace, Magistrate D. M. Jones.

This particular situation is occasioned by delay of the township clerk in certifying the clerk of courts the appointment of Squire T. L. King to succeed George W. Horton, who resigned to take up his duties as district deputy state oil inspector. Mr. Horton's resignation became effective at midnight Thursday, after its acceptance by the board of trustees. Otherwise he would have been regarded as in office until his successor was duly elected and qualified.

Magistrate King expects his commission on Monday.

Marriage Licenses.

Oliver Lucas, 19, taxicab driver, Newark, and Hazel McFee, 19, secretary to school superintendent, Newark, Rev. L. C. Sparks to officiate.

John I. Udenhoffer, 46, laborer, Newark, and Carrie F. Pratt, 48, Granville, Rev. W. D. Ward to officiate.

SENATORS

the city urging them to return here immediately. Tammany lieutenants were ordered not to permit a single man already in Albany to leave. The assemblymen are virtually prisoners in the city.

Garrison's arrest was almost as great a surprise to members of the legislature as it was to him. Arrangements were made several weeks ago to arrest him, but nothing ever was done, and he made no attempt to evade service. He has been around Albany continuously since the impeachment proceedings began, and a few moments before his detention last night he was strolling about the halls of the capitol. As he strolled into the assembly chamber to see what the body was doing, but when he attempted to depart he found himself blocked by the sergeant-at-arms, while Majority Leader Levy was presenting a resolution calling for the arrest of Garrison he was held a prisoner in a cloak room.

When called before the speaker, Garrison was without counsel and he refused to answer questions put to him. Meanwhile numerous and varying predictions were made as to what would be done with Garrison. Again Levy took the initiative and presented a resolution remanding the prisoner to the penitentiary until the close of the session unless otherwise ordered by the assembly.

The vote for the resolution was 89 to 3. A short time later Garrison was being rushed to the penitentiary.

An attaché of the institution today said that the prisoner was shown no special favors, and that the prison authorities had no orders other than to hold him as an ordinary prisoner. Levy was obviously pleased by the turn of affairs in the Garrison case, and he declared that unless Garrison bargained himself off, he would have to remain in jail until January.

"The assembly has plenary power to punish for contempt," he said. "Garrison also must go back to jail pending the court's decision on his application for a writ. He cannot be released on bail."

Garrison incurred the enmity of many of Sulzer's political opponents by his activities during the pending impeachment proceedings. He was called the governor's press agent by many. A session of the court of impeachment was called for 10 o'clock to adopt the rules of procedure. It was indicated before the session opened that the usual procedure of the state court of appeals would be followed. There was little likelihood of any testimony being heard today as attorney for Governor Sulzer planned to fight out their various legal objections before any other business was done.

LARGE DISPLAY OF IMPORTED HORSES AT LICKING FAIR

All imported horse displays ever held in the state are to be overshadowed in the Licking county fair this year, according to Secretary J. M. Farmer's announcement.

The finest assembly of imported stock ever shown in this section of the country, is another way the secretary puts it.

Besides a fine string of Belgian, French and Percheron horses recently imported by Colonel George W. Crawford, there will be exhibited a monster display furnished by Crouch & Son, importers, from Fayette, Ind. This latter firm is soon to open stables here and has practically concluded arrangements for a permanent stable at the fair grounds.

Not only will the horse exhibit be exceptional, but inquiries from Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Indiana with regard to general livestock entries indicate that this department will be an unusually attractive feature of this year's fair.

The county agricultural board has evolved a novel scheme for competition among the young farmer folks in the corn exhibit. Prizes aggregating ten dollars for first, second and third awards, are to be offered for the best ten ears of corn displayed. Fifteen different entry divisions are open to exhibitors under this class, and the youngster who pulls ten good ears from the corn field at home and brings them to the fair stands a chance of winning anything from 75 cents to $10 in prize money on his own exhibit, and considerable more if he makes other corn entries which prove prize winners.

ATTENDANCE AT DENISON GOOD

Granville, Sept. 19.—Denison University and Shephardson College began the fall registration Wednesday. The officials of the school announce that the attendance is fully up to last year. All the rooms in the boys dormitories on the hill have been taken and many are rooming in the fraternity houses and with private families. All the rooms in the girls dormitories at Shephardson have been engaged for some time and about forty are on the waiting list.

Miss Margaret Judson the new dean for Shephardson college has arrived and has assumed her duties.

Prof. Samuel B. Pringle of Chicago, is stopping at the home of Mayor J. M. Swartz. He will be at the head of the voice department, formerly taught by Prof. J. M. Priske.

The chapel exercises the coming year will be held in the Baptist church instead of Doane Academy.

WALTERMAN WAS TOUCHED FOR $7

Charged with "touching" Nick Waltermann for a roll of $7, Mrs. Mabel Rice was taken into custody Thursday night by Patrolman Hurlbaum. She is held at the city prison pending the filing of an affidavit some time today. According to the story related by Waltermann, he met the woman and talked with her, shortly afterwards missing his purse containing his weekly wealth. He complained to Patrolman Hurlbaum who made the arrest. Waltermann was locked up, stated with "investigation." This morning the woman handed $6 to a police officer, asking that the prosecution be dropped. She will get a hearing before Mayor Swartz Saturday morning.
